Councilmember, CHP, LAPD and Sheriffs Join 10-4 Day Parade

LOS ANGELES - (October 1, 2010) – Councilmember Tom LaBonge joins officers from the California Highway Patrol, the Los Angeles Police Department and the Los Angeles County Sheriffs Office to speak about public safety issues at the annual 10-4 Day Parade, on Monday, October 4 at 10:30 a.m. at the Los Angeles Fire Museum on Cahuenga Boulevard. Special guests include radio host KRTH's Shotgun Tom Kelly and actor Larry Wilcox, star of CHiPs.

Midway through the parade, around 11:45 a.m., the group will pay homage to beloved television cop, Broderick Crawford, with a brief ceremony at his Walk of Fame star. The actor played CHP Chief Dan Mathews in the popular series Highway Patrol from 1955-59.

This year's event is dedicated to Art Gilmore who passed away this past Saturday, September 25, at the age of 98. Mr. Gilmore narrated of all 156 episodes of Highway Patrol.

“The parade is intended to be fun but carry a serious message too to heighten awareness of our public safety officers and all they do to protect and serve the public,” said Councilmember LaBonge.
